

LECTURER'S CURRICULUM VITAE

HUYNH, Dang Hieu (Mr.)

	Deputy Director of the Secretariat, Secretary of the Science Council, Vietnam International Arbitration Centre (VIAC)
	Ho Chi Minh City
	Hieu.huynh@viac.org.vn
	Languages: English, Vietnamese

Practice Areas

Alternative Dispute Resolutions (ADRs), Commercial Arbitration, Commercial Mediation

General Information

Mr. Hieu is currently Deputy Director of the Secretariat of Vietnam International Arbitration Centre (VIAC) and in charge of administering arbitration proceedings at VIAC, Ho Chi Minh City Branch.

Graduating with a Bachelor's degree at Civil Law, Ho Chi Minh City University of Law, Mr. Hieu emerged as one of the two top graduates honored by the People's Committee of Ho Chi Minh City in 2015.

With more than 7 years of experience at VIAC, Mr. Hieu has been actively involved in coordinating and supporting the settlement of approximately 700 cases, particularly construction, insurance, investment, and real estate disputes.

Besides his professional role at VIAC, Mr. Hieu has been invited to be a reporter and visiting lecturer at the Judicial Academy, Foreign Trade University (Ho Chi Minh City campus), and Nguyen Tat Thanh University.

He is also a speaker at seminars on arbitration and workshops aimed at enhancing commercial law. With his practical insights, his strength is synthesizing and analyzing legal issues and providing suggestions for amendments based on practical experience.

As the Secretary of the VIAC Science Council, Mr. Hieu is responsible for compiling issues arising in arbitration proceedings, advising and assisting the Science Council in researching and reaching conclusions for dispute resolution.